

Almost everywhere well-posedness of continuity equations with measure initial data

L. Ambrosio A. Figalli

Abstract

The aim of the note is to present some new results concerning “almost everywhere” well-posedness and stability of continuity equations with measure initial data. The proofs of all such results can be found in [?], together with some application to the semiclassical limit of the Schrödinger equation.